

Three-day intensive, hands-on strategic collective bargaining workshop

pre-th!nk
inc

led by Neil Patton

START 2:30 p.m. Sunday Oct 16, 2022
FINISH 12:00 p.m. Wednesday Oct 19, 2022
Marriot Delta Whistler Suites – Whistler, BC

► CLICK HERE TO REGISTER!

Super SOLD OUT $2,695 first 8 registrants and before August 26th, 2022

Early Bird Pricing $2,995 for 9th registrant and beyond and before August 31st, 2022

Regular Fee $3,900
per person full rate after August 31st, 2022

Bonus offer: 1 day consulting for $695
(regular fee $1,800 / day) details upon registration

Includes: all meals, accommodations and materials
Travel to and from Whistler at individual's expense.

“An engaging workshop for both honing fundamental negotiation skills and embedding strategic thinking in your collective bargaining. Highly recommended for newcomers and veterans alike”

Carolynn Ryan

BC Hydro VP People & Chief Human Resources Officer

Covid-19 Rules and Practices

1. All participants must be fully vaccinated to attend. Proof of vaccination will be required. No registration without vaccination proof.
2. Workshop leader is fully vaccinated.
3. Best practices and current provincial Covid-19 guidelines (e.g., masking, respecting social distancing, food and beverage handling, etc.) will be practised.

Refunds

1. If health authorities declare an emergency or lockdown etc. due to Covid-19, all registrants will receive a 100% refund.
2. Cancellations that are not related to Covid-19 declarations under #1 above and which occur before September 15th, 2022 will be refunded their full fee less $300.
3. There will be no refunds after September 15th, 2022, except in accordance with #1 above.
4. Participant substitutions are permitted.

Who Should Attend?

This workshop is for those with key roles in collective bargaining.

- chief negotiators
- collective bargaining team members
- hr/lr, finance, communications and other practitioners involved in collective bargaining, supporting negotiations
- senior leaders and executives supporting and accountable for collective bargaining

Participants' Take Aways

- develop a strategic thinking and planning model for negotiations
- enhance confidence of the bargaining team
- establish a common framework, language, and tools to imbed strategic thinking throughout collective bargaining
- anticipate and prepare for the other party's likely approach, strategy, and tactics
- develop principles and framework for a strategic communication plan
- enable critical review of negotiation patterns and behaviours and their relative value in negotiations
- align with senior leadership and the bargaining team around a strategic negotiation plan that is understood and supported widely by all stakeholders within your organisation

What's Covered

- negotiating
- focus on how we negotiate versus what we negotiate
- getting clear on outcomes: matter - means - relationships
- how to manage the internal negotiation
- strategic communications, before, during, and after collective bargaining
- testing key assumptions, core beliefs
- managing the timeline - pre-negotiation and preparation
- basics of interest-focused negotiations
- identifying the needs of the other party and your real needs
- differentiating between positions and interests
- viewing issues from the other party's perspective
- understanding and managing personal conflict styles
- developing a mandate, team roles, protocol agreements
- identifying and managing tactics and counter tactics
- concessions and breaking impasse
- pacing of negotiations and the critical stages/phases
- using questions to gain information, understanding and influence

Neil Patton is the President of Pre-th!nk Inc. Preth!nk focuses on helping organizations and individuals improve their negotiation capabilities and outcomes. For the past 20 years Mr. Patton has functioned as negotiator, negotiation strategist, and trainer. He has advised across a wide diversity of organizations ranging from the military to large mining companies in both the public and private sectors. Mr. Patton has an Economics and Philosophy degree from Queen's University and a Masters degree in Industrial Relations from the University of Toronto.

► CLICK HERE TO REGISTER!

pre-th!nk
inc